

CROSS-PERMIT CONFLICTING WORKS CHECK

RETAIN AT PERMIT CONTROL POINT

Completed by the area authority before any permit is issued

KD-SYS-XP-014 Rev A0

HSE requires permit interaction controls to prevent conflicting activities, and provision on the permit form to cross-reference other relevant permits and certificates. HSE's own case study on Piper Alpha identifies the failure as work carried out under one permit affecting work under another, with no cross-referencing between them. 167 people died. This check is the control. Almost nobody sells it.
